USD'S PHILIP Y. HAHN SCHOOL OF NURSING WELCOMES NEW MEMBERS

Nineteen new members were inducted this November into the University of San Diego's Zeta Mu Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau. The induction ceremony, held at the Philip Y. Hahn School of Nursing, included community members and undergraduate and graduate nursing students who demonstrated excellence in leadership positions and academic programs.

At the same meeting, the Public Media Award, Region I, was presented to Paula Kriner, staff writer with the El Cajon Daily Californian, for her article, "Nurse Takes TLC on the Road." Kriner's article was cited at the National Biennial Convention (Boston) for its excellent portrayal of public health nurses.

Registered nurse, publisher and Zeta Mu member Carmen Germaine Warner contributed five books to the Sigma Theta Tau National Library in Indianapolis. The books were presented to Zeta Mu president, Pamela Jean Johnson and historian Carol Houggard.

Warner is president of Capistrano Press, a medical and nursing publishing company developed and administered by health care professionals.
